ULSTER COUNTY YOM HASHOAH (HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE) SERVICE

THURSDAY, APRIL 12, 7PM

AT JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER IN NEW PALTZ, ROUTE 32

UPDATE: April 9, 2018: The 2018 community Holocaust remembrance service (Yom HaShoah) sponsored by the Jewish Federation of Ulster County will take place on Thursday evening, April 12th at 7:00pm now at the Jewish Congregation of New Paltz COMMUNITY CENTER at 30 North Chestnut Street/Route 32 (NOT at the Shul on Church Street). This solemn candlelight service includes second generation survivors and representatives from area congregations and communities. There will be light refreshments following the ceremony. The event is free and the public is encouraged to attend.

New Paltz Rabbi William (Bill) Strongin and second-generation survivor Charlotte Tusch Scherer will host the service, which pays respect to and remembers the six million victims of the Holocaust and their families. Among the guest presenters will be poet/writer Julia Indichova, Ruth Hirsch and Ruth Beyl representing the second generation, and Shir Yaakov Feit, singer-songwriter and spiritual leader of Congregation Kol Hai.

Songs, stories and prayers will be shared. For further information, please contact the Federation office at 845-338-8131; email: info@ucjf.org; or visit: www.ucjf.org.
